MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Assistant

FROM : Chief, School of Intelligence and World Affairs

SUBJECT : Weekly Report of School of Intelligence and World Affairs No. 7, 12 - 19 June 1970

COURSE ACTIVITY

Agency Representatives to Senior Officer Schools

The DCI, all four Deputy Directors, [REDACTED] and Bruce Clarke have all agreed to appear at this annual seminar-type program scheduled for 29 June - 1 July. [REDACTED] will re-present alumni of the military and non-military schools, respectively, and will participate in conference discussions as well. A luncheon is planned on 30 June for the prospective students and recent alumni. Col. White, who was also invited to participate, will be on leave at that time.

Orientation for Overseas

In the CIA Review and in OO classes [REDACTED] began recently to mention our need for color slides on foreign countries. As a result, he has just received a good assortment of slides on [REDACTED] from an OS registrant in the June OO. Our slide showing on "Your Contacts With Local Nationals," which is tailored for each OO class, has proven to be popular with the students.

OTHER ACTIVITY

First SIWA Conference

The first SIWA Conference, held on 18 and 19 June [REDACTED] was successful from many viewpoints. It permitted the former SIC and IS faculty and most of the training assistants to get acquainted with each other and with each others' courses. Two IS careerists, [REDACTED] also attended. The DTR participated when the schedule of the ONE Consultants' meeting permitted.

[REDACTED] editor of Studies in Intelligence, discussed with [REDACTED] the prospects for the special training edition of the Studies containing awards articles of the decade. The Studies Board told Joe to go ahead with [REDACTED] COI study to be produced as a special edition of the Studies. Because Studies has such low priority with PSD, this means that the Awards articles cannot be produced for at least several months.
